Flower of the Month

May: Lily of the Valley

The lily of the valley has the flower meaning of humility, chastity, sweetness and purity.

The specific name for lily of the valley is majalis which means "that which belongs to May".

This month's Top Tip

Dissolve flower food in the water when soaking your oasis.

Royal Norfolk Show - Wednesday 30 June and Thursday 1 July 2010

Flower and Garden Show (free entry) Open from 09.30 Wednesday and 08.00 Thursday
Organised by the Norfolk & Norwich Horticultural Society

The Flower & Garden Show was a great success last year and will continue to improve and appeal to all of you out there who love to garden. It will incorporate the usual trade stands selling plants, seeds etc as well as several new gardening related stands to compliment. The courtyard gardens provide a colourful avenue leading to the entrance to the trade tent where you will be able to admire the work of some of Norfolk's finest landscape gardeners. The Gardeners' Cafe will provide you with light refreshments throughout the day in a peaceful environment.

Flower of the Month

June: Rose

All roses are symbolic for love, however each colour has a separate meaning. Red means love, respect, courage. Pink means grace, perfect happiness. Dark pink means gratitude. Light pink means admiration, sympathy. White means innocence, purity, secrecy, I'm worthy of you, you're heavenly, humility. Yellow means undying lover, platonic love, friendship. Orange means passion, desire. Blue means extraordinary, mystery. Red and White means unity.
